

Town and Gown @

FULLERTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

Ever get one of those e-mail messages that promises to correctly guess your age if you will answer a seemingly random collection of questions? Seems like Magic? Not to California State University, Fullerton professor Dr. David L. Pagni who says such "tests" are just a simple matter of mathematical trickery!

Join Dr. Pagni for this very informative and fun workshop!

"Magic Math Tricks & Chocolate Math"

Dr. David Pagni

Tuesday, March 11, 2008

7:00 – 8:30p.m.

Osborne Auditorium

Free Admission!

Dr. Pagni is a Professor of Mathematics at CSUF. His interests range across the spectrum of mathematics education from grades K-12. He has published more than 200 articles in professional journals on teaching mathematics.

Program includes time for Q & A.

For more information, visit our website at www.fullertonlibrary.org or call 714-738-6326

The Fullerton Public Library is located at:
353 W Commonwealth Ave, Fullerton, CA 92832

Fullerton Public Library invites you to become part of an exciting lecture series, Town and Gown. On the second Tuesday of each month the Library will be featuring one-hour lectures on different subjects. No tuition or student loans to repay! No test or term papers! Experience learning just for fun!

Future Town and Gown Programs:

April 8, "Celebrate National Poetry Month," Dr. Irena Praitis

May 13, "Managing Symptoms of Fibromyalgia," Dr. C. Jessie Jones

June 10, "The Non-Political, Non-Religious, Non-Sexual, Non-Economic Value of Poetry,"
Dr. Jo-Anne Cappeluti

These lectures are subject to change.