Mystery Date with a Book

February 1 - March 9

Library love is in the air! You're invited to come find your "match" through our California Library Association award-winning Mystery Date with a Book program. Check out a wrapped book from our lobby display, "Rate your Date" with our special review slips, and return your ratings to the library by March 9th for a chance to win a prize...as if a date with one of these "available" books weren't special enough.

Library Lover's Month

February is National Library Lovers Month and we're celebrating all things library! Whether you enjoy flipping through the pages of a thrilling mystery, listening to an e-book with your children, or exploring our exciting programs, libraries are vibrant spaces of discovery and community for all. Join the celebration! Visit our Circulation desk to ask for your free I ♥ Fullerton Public Library bumper sticker and show us where your library love takes you! Tag us on social media and share a favorite library love moment: #fullertonlibrarylove #libraryloversmonth

Revamped Parenting Section

Did you know the FPL has a Parenting section? We've added over fifty new titles on a wide variety of childrearing topics such as potty training, picky eating, and preparations for your newborn! Our parenting picture books are here to help you broach sensitive themes with your littles, while non-fiction resources are available to guide you through the early years of parenthood. Located in the Children's room, check out our newest arrivals!

Get Your Game on with Our Board Game of the Month!

The popularity of North Orange County Boardgamers Game Day at the Library continues unabated, with friendly volunteers from So Cal Game Connection hosting the well-attended event on the first Saturday of every month from 10:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. This month, FPL is adding a new game to play—the La Granja Deluxe Master Set, an updated version of the classic 2014 Euro game that you can learn more about here. Game on!

RECENT HAPPENINGS

Fullerton Public Library Partners with La Vista High School

On January 11, FPL stopped by La Vista High School to participate in their first Club Rush of the new year. Teen Services Librarian Emily Elliott kept the table stocked with free books courtesy of the Friends of the Library. On January 17, Emily returned LVHS to give a brief introduction to binary code and show the students how to create their own binary code bracelets and keychains.

FPL Patrons De-Stress in Everyone's Favorite Chill Setting—The Library!

On January 13, 2024, Fullerton Public Library hosted Heart Chan Meditation for a Meditate @ the Library workshop. Dr. Tracy Lee and Viki Chao, instructors from Heart Chan Meditation, offered a free, 90-minute workshop for community members to practice breathing and relaxation techniques to de-stress, energize, and purify! 40 chill visitors attended the program.

Children's Winter Reading Club 2023

MANY THANKS to our Sponsors

The Friends of the Fullerton Public Library

and community partners:

FPL's Winter Reading Program for Kids is One for the Books

What if you could experience the fun of Summer Reading in the Winter? You can! Every year, FPL offers Winter Reading programs for children, adults, and even teens. This year's Children's Winter Reading Program ran from December 12 to January 13. This year, 250 kids ages 3 to 8th grade read books and earned prizes including grab bags, craft kits, food coupons, free books, and more! A big thank you to our sponsors for this year's Winter Reading Club – The Friends of the Fullerton Public Library, Patty's Cakes, Raising Cane's, and Pizza Heaven!

RESOURCES

The New York Times

Extra, Extra, Read All About It!

Read the NY Times in the library, at home, or on-the-go using mobile browsing or an app on your smartphone! You will need an email address to set up an account with The New York Times (which is separate from your library account), but access will be free if you connect using the library's links. This valuable resource that is great for school reports or just keeping up on the news is generously sponsored by the California State Library.
